Sunday Readings

First Reading: (Ezekial 18:25-28) Echoing the complaint heard in last week's readings, today's First Reading again presents protests that God isn't fair. Why does He punish with death one who begins in virtue but falls into iniquity, while granting life to the wicked one who turns from sin?

Second Reading: (Philippians 2:111) Once again, this week's readings invite us to ponder the unfathomable ways of God's justice and mercy. He teaches His ways only to the humble, as we sing in today's Psalm. And in the Epistle today, Paul presents Jesus as the model of that humility by which we come to know life's true path.

Gospel: (Matthew 21:28-32) The first son represents the most heinous sinners of Jesus' day—tax collectors and prostitutes—who by their sin at first refused to serve in the Lord's vineyard, the kingdom. At the preaching of John the Baptist, they repented and did what was right and just. The second son represents Israel's leaders—who said they would serve God in the vineyard but refused to believe John when he told them they must produce good fruits as evidence of their repentance (see Matthew 3:8). <https://stpaulcenter.com/reflections> for more info.

AVAILABILITY

A man applied for a job as a handyman. The prospective employer asked, "Can you do carpentry?" The man answered in the negative.

"How about brick laying?" Again the man answered, "No."

The employer asked, "Well, what about electrical work?" The man said "No, I don't know anything about that either."

Finally the employer said, "Well, tell me then what is handy about you." The man replied, "I live just around the corner."

Sometimes the greatest ability we can have is availability. To be where God can call us, to be within whisper range of his summons, that is the beginning of a life of meaningful discipleship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH

September 5, 2023

Dear Parents:

My name is Fr. Mariusz Sztuk, SDS and I am delighted to be working with YOU to co-ordinate the preparation for First Reconciliation and Holy Communion, this year. The beginning of the school year also marks the beginning of sacramental preparation. I would like to invite the children to celebrate both sacraments in their Grade Two or Three. The home and parish carry the primary responsibility for this preparation. Enrolment celebration, parent orientation meetings, and sacramental celebrations will originate from the parish. Your involvement and your participation in the parish are crucial to your child's faith development and ultimate commitment to the Catholic faith. The school instruction regarding the meaning of the sacraments is an essential part of the program. It supports and enhances the learning and the experiences the children encounter at home and in the parish.

The readiness of your child to receive this sacrament will be decided by you in consultation with the pastor. Your home preparation can begin now. While you await further communication from the parish we encourage you to bring the following points to your child's awareness.

- The fact that she/he may be celebrating a sacrament.
- The name of the sacraments she/he may be preparing to celebrate.

It is also important that as family you consciously begin your child's preparation for the sacrament by intensifying:

- Your regular participation in Sunday Mass.
- Your daily morning and evening prayer.
- Your daily efforts to imitate the life of Jesus.

We, as a parish, will help you in this preparation with classes.

"I don't want to go to church anymore. I don't believe in God, it's not my religion,"

...she was told by her teenage daughter. It is only up to parents what we will do with our pain in such a situation. We can get stuck in despair and guilt. But we can also follow in the footsteps of St. Monica and draw from this drama a lesson, as beautiful as it is difficult.

In such a situation, it is easy to get stuck in your own suffering, guilt and failure. There is a temptation to give up. Bitterness, self-pity, manifestation of suffering. Reactions can be really different, but almost each of them carries a powerful load of difficult emotions. It happens that parents reach for the heaviest weapon and, wanting to punish a "wandering" family member, decide to cut themselves off from him. However, one can try to look at what happened a little differently and follow the path that St. Monica chose. This pious woman, with boundless love and persistent prayers, led to the conversion of her son. And probably there would be nothing extraordinary about it, if not for the fact that she waited 17 years for it! In this way, the biggest sinner in the area, who in his life indulged mainly in lust and debauchery, was... a saint and one of the most famous theologians in the history of the Church. A child's departure from faith (like any other drama in life) can be treated as an opportunity for conversion. It can be both a beautiful and very difficult lesson in unconditional love, freedom and gratitude. They are parents who, although they have lost their children to the Church, have not ceased to give them love and acceptance. Although they carry an open wound in their hearts, they redirect attention from their own suffering to gratitude and an attempt to build an intimate relationship with them. For some it comes naturally, for others it costs a lot of sacrifices and years of hard work. But all draw strength from the same source: a close relationship with God.

As a parish, we want to join your prayers, so we invite you to a Holy Mass and special devotion on the last Tuesday of the month, in the intuition of children who have fallen away from the faith and the church.

OCTOBER

Month of the Holy Rosary

Saint John Paul II said "The Rosary is a treasure to be discovered," October is dedicated in a special way to praying the rosary. Rosary prayers are organized in churches, schools and at home. We say a prayer with beads, which is the most well-known and widespread form of Marian devotion in the world. Why October?

Well, on October 7, 1571, the fate of Christianity in Europe was decided. In the Battle of Lepanto, Christian troops defeated the Turkish army. Pope Pius V attributed this victory to the intervention of Our Lady invoked on the rosary recited during supplication processions through the streets of Rome. As a token of gratitude, he proclaimed this day the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. Two years earlier, he had introduced into the Litany of Loreto the invocation "Queen of the Holy Rosary – pray for us". Also in October (October 13, 1917) in Fatima, Our Lady appeared to the children with a rosary in her hand and said: "If you want to avoid the calamity that threatens the world, pray the rosary." This is how the services gathering crowds of believers for a common rosary prayer were created, and October itself became a permanent inscribed in the Catholic Church as the Marian month of the rosary.

Prayer of the Rosary

The Rosary is a prayer that is prayed in the Catholic Church especially in October. It is referred to as the prayer uniting Christians with the person of the Mother of Jesus and is one of the most popular prayers of the Church. Every Catholic knows it – poor and rich, child, adult and senior. It is a simple prayer, "the prayer of the sleeping, the dying, and the utterly tired". Through prayer we can entrust to Mary not only our joys and successes, but also all our sorrows and failures. The rhythmically repeated "Hail Mary" is a cry to Mary, Our Lady, asking for support. The mother will listen attentively to each one and then bring our petitions and supplications to God. Constant, persistent and patient prayer of the rosary works miracles. Therefore, let us not be afraid to reach for this effective prayer weapon for the intentions of the whole Church, all families, lonely people, lost in life and defenceless.

This month we especially want to undertake several initiatives that are to bring us closer to Mary through the prayer of the Rosary.

- 1. Every day we invite you to pray the rosary.
