Sunday Readings

First Reading: (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19) In today's First Reading and Epistle, we see the beginnings of that mission. And we see the apostles interpreting the Scriptures as Jesus taught them to.

Second Reading: (1 John 2:1-5) John, too, describes Jesus in Old Testament terms. Alluding to how Israel's priests offered blood sacrifices to atone for the people's sins (see Leviticus 16; Hebrews 9-10), he says that Jesus intercedes for us before God (see Romans 8:34), and that His blood is a sacrificial expiation for the sins of the world (see 1 John 1:7).

Gospel: (Luke 24: 35-48) Jesus in today's Gospel teaches His apostles how to interpret the Scriptures. He tells them that all the Scriptures of what we now call the Old Testament refer to Him.

What is His Number?

One Sunday a vicar was doing a children's talk, using a telephone to illustrate the idea of prayer. "You talk to people on the telephone but you don't see them on the other end of the line, do you?" he began. The children shook their heads. "Well, talking to God is like talking on the telephone. He's on the other end, but you can't see him. He's listening though."

Just then a little boy piped up and asked, "What's his number?"

We don't need a telephone number to get through to God. We just need to know Jesus. He walks beside us by his Spirit. We can talk to him at any time. He wants us to keep talking. He always listens. He always understands.

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

It is a new year! How quickly the time passes for us. Today is a time for us to look back over the year gone by, but more especially a time to look forward --- forward to what? By now we have realized, have we not, that it is not the "things of the world", but rather a life lived in "active response" to God which keeps us interested and excited about being alive. My main wish and my prayer for 1978 is that every Catholic in our parish will grow spiritually and will become involved in the parish. May God bless you and your families.
 I wish you a Happy New Year!

Special Thanks: I wish to express my thanks to the parishoners for their thoughtfulness and generosity toward me in the Christmas season. May God bless you in return.

CWL

Just a reminder that Our Lady of Good Council Feast Day is Friday, April 26th. The CWL will be celebrating this Feast Day with Mass beginning at 9:15 am. Coffee and sweets to follow.

Do you want our Lord to give you many graces? Visit him often. Do you want him to give you few graces? Visit him seldom. Visits to the Blessed Sacrament are powerful and indispensable means of overcoming the attacks of the devil. Make frequent visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the devil will be powerless against you.

-St. John Bosco
