Sunday Readings

First Reading: (Sirach 15: 15-20) The book of Sirach has always generated widespread interest among scripture scholars. It is not included in Protestant translations of the Bible and was removed from Hebrew scripture shortly after the first century. The first 43 chapters of Sirach offer moral instruction, which is exactly the focus of today's reading. The passage stresses that woman and men have to take responsibility over their moral actions, in that each person can choose to follow the commandments. Ultimately, each person can choose eternal life or eternal death.

Second Reading: (1 Corinthians 2:6-10) Paul wrote this letter at Ephesus to the people of Corinth as a simple yet profound attempt to bring the Gospel to a group of people who lacked in any formal education. In this reading Paul speaks of a higher wisdom that our finite limited minds cannot comprehend. The promise of what complete faith in God can bring us: "Eye has not seen... (re-read 9-10).

Gospel: (Matthew 15:17-37) As a devout Jew, Jesus adhered to the Torah – the Jewish "Law of Moses" – and he was zealous about God's commands. At the same time, he goes deeper than merely keeping the law, he also stresses love, justice, mercy and faith. In this passage from Matthew, Jesus reveals that God's commandments are to govern our hearts, thoughts and intentions, and not only our actions. "Tearing out one's eye" or "cutting off one's hand or foot" are examples of hyperbole – or exaggerated speech – which is used to make a strong point about the call to conversion. The message is that sight and limbs are to be used for God's glory, and never to abuse others or treat them as objects. Jesus stresses the dignity of the human person, and proclaims God's design for our lives and our interactions with others.

Grandma Knows How To Cook!

Little Johnny and his family were having Sunday dinner at his Grandmother's house. Everyone was seated around the table as the food was being served. When Little Johnny received his plate, he started eating right away. 'Johnny! Please wait until we say our prayer.' said his mother. 'I don't need to,' the boy replied. 'Of course, you do.' his mother insisted. 'We always say a prayer before eating at our house.'

'That's at our house.' Johnny explained. 'But this is Grandma's house and she knows how to cook!'

Have a great holiday!

As we enter the holy Season of Lent, the Church invites us into a time of grace, renewal, and deeper conversion of heart. Lent is one of the most important seasons in the Catholic liturgical year. It is a sacred journey that prepares us to celebrate the greatest mystery of our faith: the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ at Easter.

The Meaning of Lent

Lent lasts for forty days, recalling the forty days Jesus spent fasting and praying in the desert. During this time, He faced temptation and prepared Himself for His public mission. In the same way, Lent is our spiritual desert — a time to step away from distractions, to reflect honestly on our lives, and to return more fully to God.

The Church calls us to three essential Lenten practices:

• Prayer – growing closer to God through personal and communal prayer.

• Fasting – learning self-discipline and making space for God in our lives.

• Almsgiving – showing charity and love toward those in need.

These practices help us renew our relationship with God and with one another.

Ash Wednesday – The Beginning of Our Journey

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, a solemn and beautiful day when we receive ashes on our foreheads. As the ashes are placed on us, we hear the words:

“Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

or

“Repent, and believe in the Gospel.”

The ashes remind us of our need for repentance, humility, and conversion. They are not merely a symbol, but a visible sign of our desire to turn back to God and begin again.

In our parish, we will celebrate Ash Wednesday Mass with the distribution of ashes at the following times:

- High River – 9:00 AM and 7:00 PM
- Vulcan – 5:00 PM

We warmly invite everyone to attend one of these Masses and begin this holy season together as a parish family.

The Stations of the Cross

Throughout Lent, we also pray the Stations of the Cross, a powerful devotion that allows us to walk spiritually with Jesus on His way to Calvary. As we meditate on each station, we reflect on His suffering, His love, and the sacrifice He made for our salvation.

Praying the Stations helps us:

- Grow in gratitude for Christ’s sacrifice.
- Unite our own sufferings with His.
- Deepen our understanding of God’s mercy and love.

It is a beautiful way to enter more deeply into the mystery of the Cross and prepare our hearts for Holy Week.

Why Lent Is Important

Lent is not simply about giving something up. It is about making room for God. It is about transformation. It is about allowing Christ to renew our hearts so that we may celebrate Easter with true joy.

This season reminds us that:

- God’s mercy is greater than our sins.
- Conversion is always possible.
- New life comes through sacrifice and love.

Let us not allow this Lent to pass by as just another season. Instead, let us embrace it as a time of grace — a time to return to prayer, to the sacraments, and to a deeper trust in the Lord.

We encourage all parishioners and families to participate fully in the Lenten journey — beginning with Ash Wednesday and continuing through the Stations of the Cross and the celebration of Holy Week.

May this Lent be a blessed and fruitful time for our entire parish community.

Q&A Session

With Fr. Mariusz

Fr. Marius Answers the Liturgical Questions from Parishioners

Where Do Our Ashes for Ash Wednesday Come From?

Each year on Ash Wednesday, we come forward to receive ashes on our foreheads, hearing the words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return," or "Repent, and believe in the Gospel." It is a powerful and humbling way to begin our Lenten journey. A question that often arises is: Where do our ashes come from?

Here in our parish, the ashes are prepared from the palm branches distributed on Palm Sunday the previous year. After Palm Sunday, many parishioners take blessed palms home as a sacramental—a reminder of Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem and the beginning of His Passion.

As Lent approaches the following year, those old palms are gathered and reverently burned. In our parish, Deacon Larry carries out this important task. He carefully burns the palms and prepares the ashes that will be used on Ash Wednesday. This quiet but meaningful work helps connect one liturgical year to the next in a very tangible way.

There is deep symbolism in this practice. On Palm Sunday, we joyfully wave palms to honor Christ as King. Yet within days, the same voices that praised Him cried out for His crucifixion. By turning those palms into ashes, the Church reminds us of the fragility of human faith and our constant need for conversion.

Ashes have long been a biblical sign of repentance and humility. In the Old Testament, people would sit in sackcloth and ashes as a sign of sorrow for sin. When we receive ashes at the start of Lent, we are publicly acknowledging our need for God's mercy and committing ourselves to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

Before they are distributed, the ashes are blessed. Though simple in appearance, they carry profound spiritual meaning. They remind us of our mortality, call us to repentance, and point us toward the hope of the Resurrection.

So when you receive ashes this Ash Wednesday, you are receiving more than just burned palm branches. You are receiving a sign of our shared faith, lovingly prepared within our own parish community, and an invitation to walk together the Lenten path toward Easter.

Confession or Communion to the Homebound

If you are homebound and desiring to receive Communion or the Sacrament of Reconciliation, please call the parish office at 403-652-2203 or email Father Marius at fr-marius@francisdesaleshighriver.com to request a visit. He will do his best to schedule a visit with you

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world. Let Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is he who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: he is God with us. Seek him without tiring, welcome him without reserve, love him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever."

- Pope Saint John Paul II
